

Running Wild Table Runner/Placemat

Let your creativity Run Wild! Join Sue in this 1-Day Studio Class working with Tonye B. Phillips' Running Wild Table Runner pattern. Create your own pieced table runner or placemat(s) with an assortment of African fabrics and Shweshwe or something from your own stash! Embellish your work with contrasting running stitches and set your table with an incredibly unique piece!

Class Includes:

- 1 day of instruction from Sue
- Afternoon snack, and refreshments

In Class You Will Learn:

- Running Wild Table Runner by Tonye B. Phillips construction
- Perfect Circles
- Big stitch quilting

Supply List:

- # 9 Short Darnier or Straw #10 needles for cotton appliqué
- # 24 Chenille needle
- #18 Chenille needle
- Efinia 60wt cotton thread in colors to match your fabrics
- Size 8 or Size 5 Eleganza Perle Cotton
- Applique or Quilting pins
- Embroidery and Fabric scissors
- Journal and pen for note taking
- Bigger Perfect Circles
- Stitch Spacing Ruler
- Sewline Trio Chalk Pencil

Fabrics

- A wide variety of fabric in bright colors, geometrics, stripes, florals, dots, etc.
 - African Shweshwe looks great!
 - Blocks are cut to 4.5"
 - Finished Runner is 20" x 62"
- 1/4 Yard polka dot or other fabric for each end
- Backing cut to 20.5" x 62.5"
- Cotton batting (thin) or flannel cut to 20.5" x 62.5" for Runner

Misc

- Running Wild Table Runner pattern by Tonye B Phillips
- Sewing machine + machine sewing thread (OR RENT ONE OF OURS!*)

*Sewing machine rental - $10 per day | Please reserve ahead of time | Only 2 available